Instructions

Unless otherwise stated, all legislative references are to the federal Income Tax Act or, where appropriate, the federal Income Tax Regulations.

An RDSP holder can use this form to record rollover amount information as referenced in section 60.02. The RDSP issuer must keep this form and any relevant documentation as a record of the rollover transaction. A separate form must be filled out for each rollover transaction. Filling out this form is the final step in the rollover process.

Note

RDSP issuers may produce and use their own method of documentation for this transaction.

The RDSP holder must fill out Sections 1, 2 and 3, and keep a copy of this form for their records.

Definitions

Deceased individual – an individual who was an annuitant under a RRIF or RRSP, or was a member of an RPP, SPP or PRPP immediately before death.

Eligible individual – a child or grandchild of a deceased annuitant under an RRSP or RRIF, or of a deceased member of an RPP, SPP or PRPP, who was financially dependent on the deceased for support, at the time of the deceased's death, by reason of mental or physical infirmity. The eligible individual must also be the beneficiary under the RDSP into which the eligible proceeds will be paid.

Note

A person is eligible for the DTC only if a medical practitioner certifies on Form T2201, Disability Tax Credit Certificate, that the individual has a severe and prolonged impairment in physical or mental functions. This form must also be approved by the CRA and the person must be deemed to be eligible for the DTC. To apply online or get Form T2201, go to Disability tax credit \(DTC\) or call 1-800-959-8281.

Eligible proceeds – an amount (other than an amount that was deducted under paragraph 60(l) in calculating the eligible individual's income) received by an eligible individual as a consequence of the death of a parent or grandparent of the eligible individual that is any of the following:

- a refund of premiums (Form T2019, Death of an RRSP Annuitant – Refund of Premiums)
- an eligible amount under subsection 146.3(6.11) (Form T1090, Designation on the Death of a RRIF Annuitant, PRPP Member, or ALDA Annuitant)
- a payment (other than a payment that is part of a series of periodic payments or that relates to an actuarial surplus) out of or under an RPP, SPP or PRPP

Pooled registered pension plan (PRPP) – a retirement savings plan to which you or your employer, or both, can contribute. Any income earned in the PRPP is usually exempt from tax as long as it remains in the plan.

PRPP administrator – the person or body of persons that is responsible for administering the PRPP.

RDSP holder – an individual who enters into an RDSP with an RDSP issuer.

RDSP issuer – a corporation as described in subsection 146.4(1), with whom the holder has an arrangement that is an RDSP.

Registered disability savings plan (RDSP) – a savings plan intended to help an individual who is approved to receive the disability tax credit (DTC) to save for their long-term financial security.

Registered pension plan (RPP) – a pension plan that the Canada Revenue Agency has registered. Funds are contributed by an employer, or by an employer and employees, to provide a pension to employees when they retire.

Registered retirement income fund (RRIF) – a fund established with a carrier and that the Canada Revenue Agency has registered. Property is transferred to the carrier from an RRSP, an RPP, an SPP, a PRPP or from another RRIF and the carrier makes payments to you.

Registered retirement savings plan (RRSP) – a retirement savings plan that you establish, that the Canada Revenue Agency has registered, and to which you or your spouse or common-law partner contribute. Any income earned in the RRSP is usually exempt from tax as long as the funds remain in the plan. You generally have to pay tax when you receive payments from the plan.

Rollover amount – a specified RDSP payment made to an eligible individual's RDSP.

RPP administrator – the person or body of persons that is responsible for administering the RPP.

RRIF carrier – a person described in subsection 146.3(1), with whom an annuitant has an arrangement that is a RRIF.

RRSP issuer – a person described in subsection 146(1), with whom an annuitant has a contract or arrangement that is an RRSP.

Specified RDSP payment – for an eligible individual, means a payment that meets all of the following conditions:

- is made to an RDSP under which the eligible individual is the beneficiary
- complies with the conditions set out in paragraphs 146.4(4)(f), 146.4(4)(g) and 146.4(4)(h)
- is made after June 2011
- has been designated in prescribed forms for a tax year by the holder of the plan and the eligible individual at the time that the payment is made
- if the eligible individual is not a DTC-eligible individual, the payment is made no later than the end of the fourth tax year following the first tax year throughout which the beneficiary is not a DTC-eligible individual.

Specified pension plan (SPP) – a pension plan or similar arrangement that has been prescribed under the Income Tax Regulations as a "specified pension plan" for purposes of the Income Tax Act. Many of the rules related to RRSPs also apply to SPPs.

SPP administrator – the person or body of persons that is responsible for administering the SPP.
